FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Crossroads Systems' Chief of Information Strategy & Security Nominated for the 2010 Austin Business Journal's Profiles in Power & Women of Influence Award

Austin, Texas – July 23, 2010 – Crossroads Systems, Inc. (symbol: CRDS), a global provider of solutions to connect, protect, secure and restore data, today announced that Anyck Turgeon, Chief of Information Strategy and Security, has been nominated for the 16th Annual Austin Business Journal Profiles in Power & Women of Influence Award.

Nominated as a finalist for a third consecutive year, Ms. Turgeon continues to be recognized as one of the top Central Texas women leaders who have forged their own path and developed their own leadership principles. Nominees and winners of this award are most noteworthy, as they have made a difference in their communities, blazed new trails, and are leaving a mark on Central Texas business.

Winners of the Profiles in Power and Women of Influence Awards will be announced during a luncheon event on Friday, July 23 at the Westin Hotel at the Domain. The program includes keynote speaker Michelle Andrews Smith, Assistant to the Board of Governors of the U.S. Federal Reserve System, as well as an opportunity to recognize Pamela Willeford, a Special Achievement Award Honoree and former United States Ambassador to Switzerland and the Principality of Liechtenstein.
